

Christian Aid Event – Sunday 11th May 2014

Nine-year-old Edile Beite Chaverra lives in Colombia in a humanitarian zone protected by international law. Here he is safe from the armed groups that killed his father.

War Tears Lives Apart

Will you come and join us at Our Lady and St Gregory's Church to help raise money for many innocent lives that are being torn apart through wars. Thousands of people are being killed, maimed, displaced, and are going hungry causing illness and further deaths.

We want to make a difference and I am sure a lot of you reading this article do too. Which is why we are once again holding afternoon tea here at Our Lady and St Gregory's Church on Sunday 11th May to help raise money for all those so desperately in need.

Last year we raised £450 altogether which included £180 from our tombola stall.

We will be serving our delicious cream teas from 3pm - 5pm price £2.00

We would love to see as many people as possible so bring your family and friends and make a difference whilst enjoying your self as well.

Don't forget to put this Christian Aid event Sunday 11th May from 3.00pm to 5.00pm in your diaries.
